THE HISTORY OF LETTER WRITING DURING WARTIME

Release Form

I understand that I am participating in the History of Letter Writing During Wartime Project by allowing my materials to be digitized and/or allowing my materials to be presented as part of the project. I understand that the overall purpose of this project is to document letters, photographs and other records and objects related to the history of letter writing during wartime and to produce electronic images and other objects (collectively "Materials"). The materials will be used to illustrate the significance and impact that war letters have on history. The Materials may be used for scholarly, informational, and educational purposes.

I understand that the Rampart Library District will retain a digital copy of the Materials that may be used in publications, research, exhibitions, and presentations and may be located on a database accessible on the internet and successor technologies, without any compensation to me. I further agree that the electronic Materials may be used for promoting the Rampart Library District and activities in any medium.

I hereby grant the license forever to the Rampart Public Library the right to use the electronic Materials as stated above. By giving my permission, I understand that I do not give up any copyright that I may hold, but I do understand the Rampart Library District has a continuous right to use materials.

I also grant the Rampart Library District my absolute and irrevocable consent for an electronic Materials provided by me to be used, published and copied by the Rampart Library District in any medium and at any time.

I release and forever discharge the Rampart Library District and its employees and Trustees from any and all claims, demands proceedings, cause of action, orders, obligations, contracts, agreements, and liabilities which the undersigned has ever had, or may hereafter having, arising out of or in connection with the copying, documenting or use of such electronic materials, including, but not limited to, any claims for damage, destruction, or loss of the electronic materials, and any claims for copyright infringement, defamation, invasion of privacy or right of publicity. The undersigned covenants to refrain from, directly or indirectly, asserting any claim or demand, or commencing, instituting or causing to be commenced and proceeding of any kind against the Rampart Library District, based upon any matter purported to be released hereunder.
